

GUEST SPEAKER BIO

Major Bob Johnson, Santa Rosa County Sheriff's Office

(From <http://santarosasheriff.org/>)

Major Bob Johnson has been employed with the Santa Rosa County Sheriff's Office since 1993. He has been a member of our SWAT unit for over 20 years and is currently the SWAT Team Commander; overseeing all team selections, training and deployments. During his tenure with our Agency, Major Johnson has been a member of multiple units to include Major Crimes Detective, Narcotics Supervisor, DARE Officer School Resource Officer, Juvenile Unit Supervisor, Patrol Corporal, Patrol Sergeant, District Commander, Internal Affairs, Administrative Captain, Criminal Investigations Division Commander, Fleet Operations and also Media Relations.

Major Johnson was promoted to Major in April of 2015. Sheriff Hall has assigned him as the Law Enforcement Division Commander overseeing all operational aspects of our Law Enforcement Division. Major Johnson has completed over 3,000 hours of specialized training in various law enforcement topics such as administrative management, supervisory techniques, patrol techniques, S.W.A.T. operations, criminal and narcotic investigations. Major Johnson has successfully completed thirteen months of Senior Leadership program through the Florida Criminal Justice Executive Institute as well as the Leadership Santa Rosa Program Class 28. He is a graduate of the FBI Academy and currently holds a Degree in Criminal Justice. Major Johnson also serves as the Homeland Security Coordinator for our agency and is an active member of Florida's Region One Domestic Security Task Force.

About Rotary

Rotary brings together a global network of volunteer leaders dedicated to tackling the world's most pressing humanitarian challenges. Rotary connects 1.2 million members of more than 34,000 Rotary clubs in over 200 countries and geographical areas. For more information, visit Rotary.org.

About Rotary Club of Navarre

Founding in 1995, Rotary Club of Navarre is comprised of business and civic leaders committed to improving our community and the world through service to others. Our programs focus on youth education and well-being, families and community. For more information, visit Navarrerotary.org.

Contact: Dan Sulger, Club President – (850) 396-2552 – Navarrerotary@gmail.com